JUNIOR GOLFERS READY FOR THE 4TH ANNUAL JUNIOR OPEN @ BASKING RIDGE CC

Piscataway, NJ – Boys and girls across the state are preparing for the 2012 New Jersey PGA Junior Open Championship, Monday & Tuesday, July 9th & 10th at Basking Ridge Country Club in Basking Ridge, NJ.

Thanks to tremendous support from the staff and members at Basking Ridge CC, this event is continues to be a highlight on the New Jersey PGA Junior Tour. The event has always received regional attention but recently the AJGA recognized the event as a top multiple day tournament in the Metropolitan area, rewarding the winning boy with a Performance Based Exemption star.

Past winners include current Rutgers University Men's Golf Team member Jacob Stockl of Clark, NJ, current Peddie Prep player Curren Mody of Monmouth Junction, NJ, one of the top high school players in the state and 2011 & 2012 Girls First Team All State honoree Emily Mills of Farmingdale, NJ.

The deadline to register for this event is Monday, July 2nd and some of the top high school players in the state are already registered. 2011 NJPGA Boys 16-18 Player of the Year Dominic Diaz of Bridgewater, NJ looks to start of the summer with a victory. Joining Dominic in the field is Immaculata HS standout Bryan Saxon, Jefferson Township's #1 player Ryan Snouffer and First Team All Bergen County selection Jared Mactas of Pascack Hills.

The New Jersey Section, PGA of America is one of 41 Sections throughout the country. Junior Golf has a rich tradition in the Garden State and if you or someone you know is interested in a competitive junior golf atmosphere, please visit us at newjersey.pga.com.
